COUNSEL

Bianca Berardicurti mainly deals with litigation, arbitration, restructuring and insolvency proceedings. She assists leading Italian and foreign financial institutions, corporations and multinational groups, in every aspect of the litigation, including pre-litigation risk assessment, in civil, financial, commercial, banking, bankruptcy and aviation law. She assists clients both in court and in national and international arbitration proceedings. Bianca has gained considerable experience in financial litigation, with particular reference to litigation on derivative transactions with public and private entities, and in bankruptcy and insolvency law. Bianca also provides assistance in ordinary, precautionary and arbitration proceedings concerning energy and related contracts (EPC and O&M contracts guarantees, etc.).

Bianca has collaborated with the chair of Civil Law at the Università degli Studi Roma Tre since 2009.

Bianca holds a Ph.D. in European Private law defending the doctoral thesis "The Derivative Contracts under an Italian law – perspective".

In 2024, Bianca Berardicurti has been awarded "Lawyer of the year Arbitration" at the Legalcommunity Forty under 40 Awards.
